FREEDOM FEST GOSPEL CONCERT AT THE BRIDGE CROSSING JUBILEE

Saluting 100 Years of Women's Suffrage: Past & Present
SUNDAY, MARCH 1, 2020 3:30PM – 6:30PM

In conjunction with the 55th Anniversary of Bloody Sunday and the Selma-To-Montgomery March, we will celebrate the 100th year anniversary of the Women's Suffrage Movement and the 19th Amendment, granting women the right to vote by honoring some of the most influential women of the 20th and 21st century instrumental in gaining and expanding voting rights for all Americans. This event pays homage to their fearless and selfless work by acknowledging their advocacy work.

Honorees: LaTosha Brown, cofounder of Black Voters Matter, Rhonda Briggins, One of Georgia's 100 Most Influential Women, Footsoldiers of the Movement

Recording Gospel Artist include: Elder/Pastor William Murphy III, James Fortune
